

Weekly Update

20.1.25

Please read the information below so you are informed of the latest updates and what is happening in school.

Happy New Year!

School News:

- Ms Scallon will be returning at the end of March as Deputy Head / SENCo. This term Mrs Tomkins has taken on the role of Acting Deputy and Miss Taylor will continue as SENDCo.
- We are aiming to go cashless - “Online payment only” by March 2025. Please be aware we will not be accepting any cash payments for uniform, music lessons and books, before and after school provision after 1st March 2025.
- Please note: If your child's attendance falls below 90% you will automatically get an attendance letter from the School, whatever the reason for the absence. Punctuality is an issue. Well done all those parents who always get your child into school by 9.00am at the latest.
- Thank you to all the parents who bought plain black or plain white trainers or shoes for school wear. Our uniform policy is very simple and cost effective, please adhere to the rules that are in place.

Parents Coffee morning (Parent Forum)

Mimi has organised a Parents Coffee Morning 9.05am - 9.45am on the last Wednesday of each month. It is a time to catch up and look at events for 2025. The first date is next Wednesday 29th January.

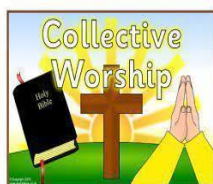

Support for parents and safeguarding our children

We will keep you informed over this term of any workshops or support that the school can offer. Parents found the workshops last term very helpful and informative.

The first workshop for YEAR 1 parents/carers about Phonics - this Thursday, 23rd January (9-9.30am). Please book using the link below.

Collective Worship

We are focusing on what we need to leave behind in the old year and our aspirations and hopes for the new year.

Father Michael will be looking at other faith festivals this week.

Vision statement: Every member of our school family can stand as spiritual, confident, positive individuals, rooted in Christian values, empowered to face life's challenges, reach their full potential and serve the community.

Have a good week!
