

St. Stephen's C.E. Primary School

Five Core Values

Kindness

Being warm-hearted and considerate to others

The children of St. Stephen's see this in action through:

Helping each other to achieve their best

Sharing with others

Caring for younger children

Giving to Charities or a good cause, showing generosity

Positive talk in school and the playground

Helping Teachers and Playtime Supervisors

Having compassion for others in school and the wider world

Good friendships that do not exclude others

Showing forgiveness

Praising others when they have tried their best

Honesty

Being truthful in all situations

The children of St. Stephen's see this in action through:

Being honest when you do not understand something so you can get help

Telling the truth when something has gone wrong

Positive, happy relationships with teachers and other adults in school

Positive, happy with the children in our class and the school

Showing integrity – being honest with yourself and others

Excellent behaviour

Respect

Treating others and yourself positively

The children of St. Stephen's see this in action through:

Achieving your best

Listening to others

Excellent behaviour, good manners

Following the school and class rules - obedience

Being fair, showing justice

Showing tolerance

Everyone, despite our differences playing and working together

Looking after the school environment

Self-control

To control your feelings, emotions or reactions

The children of St. Stephen's see this in action through:

Achieving your full potential

Having patience with others

Tolerating others when they get on your nerves

Keeping focused in lessons

Good standard of work

Telling an adult when you are upset or hurt

Being kind to one another

Having a positive attitude to work

Excellent behaviour

Perseverance

To continue on despite difficulties

The children of St. Stephen's see this in action through:

Achieving learning targets

Excellent behaviour

Good pace of teaching and learning

A consistent standard of presentation

Consistently being kind and caring to others

Courage to keep going when things are difficult

Treating others the way we want to be treated ourselves

Endurance to reach your full potential

As a Church school our values are based on the Fruit of the Spirit; love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.